“Be Prepared” by

TA-Q-BIN
DOOR-TO-DOOR PARCEL DELIVERY SERVICE

Former Head Coach,
Japan National Football Team
/ Current Owner of FC Imabari
Takeshi Okada

The “TA-Q-BIN” service is a part of Japan’s “Omotenashi (Japanese spirit of hospitality and service)”

Hello everyone, and welcome to Japan. I too, was a scout member when I was a boy, and I have found that what I learned back then has been very useful to me in the world of football. When I competed twice in the FIFA World Cup as Head Coach of Japan’s national team, and now as a commentator and club owner, I have not once forgotten the Boy Scout Motto, “Be Prepared”. My job requires me to move around and live a transient life, but Japan has TA-Q-BIN, a very convenient parcel delivery service. I too, use it often to send my luggage to the airport or hotel. As a general rule, they are not only delivered by the following day, but you can also designate the time. I think this is the kind of meticulous and careful service that is unique to the Japanese spirit of Omotenashi. The Olympic Games will be held in Tokyo in 2020. I would like to share this Omotenashi experience with everyone through TA-Q-BIN.

The Merits of TA-Q-BIN!
